

AKISAN ATLANTA ELECTION 2021 (MY MANIFESTO (VISION 2021)

My name is Onodiongo Eyo, dedicated committed member and a faithful son of Akwa ibom state. Let me begin by saying thanks to all of you who made it through "total lockdown, six feet distance and daily face mask life into 2021. Most especially our nurses, doctors, and all those in medical field in our community, you are our hero. what a journey through 2020, we all thank God and pray that the souls of those departed rest in peace.

My journey of service for this community took me through, cultural dance, assistant secretary, vice president, and now seeking to serve as your next president aka the chief servant of this community. But you may ask, what should I offer differently, why do I deserve your vote, what are my visions.

1. Meeting time: Meeting time is way too long. I would start by 7pm and ends by 9pm, if we cannot finish all the item on the agenda, next month is another general meeting.
2. Vicinity remodeling; beautiful landscape, creating a suitable parking space, basketball court and providing security lights in the parking lot. To attract a monthly revenue of more than $4000.00
3. Cultural dance will be revived and be stronger than ever. I will meet with the coordinator to perfect this plan together.
4. Building a community of love, unity, kindness, and peace. "When spiders unite, they can tie down a lion."
5. Each new member will have a welcome package that includes writing pads, lapel pin and a flier to invite more members.
6. Grant writing for more funding, I would seek the help of several experts. We will be working together on this grant.
7. Our Mkpawara will return to the meeting in numbers, our meeting should feel like monthly picnic, they have agreed to join hands in building our community.
8. Youth development and commitment, we need a Wi-Fi for this house, video games, flat screen Tv's and a basketball court.

9. Respect and integrity. You catch more flies with honey than vinegar. Our words our attitudes our actions can bring back many members and we will achieve many goals and start setting new goal.

I know there are those who do not believe we can do all these things. I understand the skepticism. After all, every election year, candidates make similar promises, and expect this year will be no different. All of us running for president offering point-to-point plans and making grand speeches; all of us will trumpet those qualities we believe make us uniquely qualified to lead this chapter. But too many times, after the election is over, and the confetti is swept away, all those promises fade from memory, and people turn away, disappointed as before.

That is why this presidency cannot only be about me. It must be about us - it must be about what we can do together, politics do not have to divide us anymore. None of us is as smart as all of us.” — Ken Blanchard. My campaign must be the vehicle, of your hopes, and your dreams. Let It take your time, your energy, and your advice - to push us forward when we are doing right, and to let us know when we are not. This campaign must be about reclaiming the meaning of unity and progress, restoring our sense of common purpose, and realizing that few obstacles cannot withstand the power of several of voices calling for unity and progress in Akisan Atlanta.

And if you will join me in this improbable quest, if you feel destiny calling, and see as I see, a future of endless possibility stretching before us; that the time is now to shake off our slumber, and slough off our fear, and make good on the debt we owe past and future generations, then I am ready to take up the cause, and march with you, and work with everyone. Together, starting today, let us finish the work that needs to be done, and usher in a new birth of Akisan Atlanta.

God bless America

God bless Akisan Atlanta

God bless each and everyone of you,

Thanks
